This will then take you to the Surfing Australia web site which you will need to sign up to if you do not already have a Surfing Australia account.

The image shows the Surfing Australia Portal landing page. On the left, there is a large graphic of a surfer riding a wave, with the text "SURFING PORTAL" overlaid. Below this graphic are several circular icons representing different Surfing Australia regions. To the right of the graphic, there is a "Sign Up" link. Below the graphic, there is a welcome message: "Surfing Australia and State Associations would like to welcome you to the Surfing Portal. Everything you need to manage your surfing lifestyle." followed by instructions on how to support a Boardrider Club, find a Surf School, register for events, or become an accredited surf coach or judge. At the bottom, it says "Sign up now for free and become a part of the Australian Surf Community."

The image shows the Surfing Australia Portal membership selection screen. The user is logged in as "4670 SUPCLUB". The screen displays a "MY PROFILE" section with tabs for "PROFILE", "MEMBER DETAILS", and "MEMBERSHIP". A "MY CLUBS" section shows "SURFING QUEENSLAND". A modal window is open, prompting the user to "Let's get you started with buying your first membership". The modal has two buttons: "Buy State Membership" and "Buy Club Membership". A red arrow points to the "Buy Club Membership" button with the text "Select this to buy Club registration".
